

EARN YOUR ASA CERTIFICATIONS DURING A CRUISING VACATION IN MALLORCA, SPAIN

JUNE 21-27, 2020

Combine a unique vacation in the Balearic Islands of Spain with a liveaboard sailing class during which you can earn your ASA bareboating certification.

The class, organized by Sea Safaris Sailing School of Chicago, will take place from June 21 to 27, 2020, in Palma de Mallorca and will be limited to 4 people.

This is an ideal and fun way to obtain your certifications while, at the same time, enjoy a great vacation.

Although this is a structured class, there will be plenty of time for some leisurely activities, like swimming in the picturesque anchorages along the coast and experiencing the local cuisine.

At the end of the week, you will take the written test to obtain your ASA 104 bareboating certification which is required by the E.U. countries to charter a yacht in the Mediterranean.

If you do not have your ASA 101 (basic keelboat) or ASA 103 (basic coastal cruising), let us know and we will help you with these as well.

If a partner or spouse would like to accompany but not take the classes, we will be able to accommodate them.

You will also have the option to join the ASA flotilla in Mallorca during the following week and get even more experience and make new friends with fellow sailors.

For further information contact your instructor, Capt. Jean De Keyser, at sailing@medsailingadventures.com or Capt. Brian Earl at brian@seasafarissailingschool.com